The Race of Honors Project

Directions: “Roman politicians usually followed a set course from lower offices to higher offices. They thought of this path as a race. Men competed to win the race and make it to the top.” You are going to create a poster that shows the race of honors. You will need to explain each step along the way. Make sure your design shows movement through each office to the next. Make sure each office is in the correct order.

- Identify and explain the following offices:
  - Quaestors
  - Aediles
  - Tribunes of the Plebs
  - Praetors
  - Councils
  - Dictator – make sure the viewer of the poster will know that this is an unusual position - that is outside of the normal race to the top.

- Requirements
  - Neat
  - Organized
  - Good grammar
  - Design shows movement towards the top offices
